

RESPECT THE TAG

The Canadian livestock producer Bill of Rights.
Our promise to you, your obligation to the Canadian traceability system.

PRODUCER'S | RIGHTS

Complimentary client support for Canadian Livestock Tracking System (CLTS) data reporting and tag purchasing

Protection of privacy of all producer data in the CLTS

Purchase tags directly from CCIA

View their own data on request

Access to no-charge technical support for tagging, reading and reporting traceability data

Free support for defective CCIA ear tags

Competitive national price for approved CCIA tags

CCIA'S | RIGHTS

Provide regulated data to stakeholders as mandated by Health of Animals Part XV regulations

Collect current, up-to-date tag/producer data

Sell and distribute tags direct to producer

Refuse information inquiries outside proper channel

PRODUCER'S | OBLIGATIONS

Report tag issues/problems

Use the proper applicator when applying tags

Install tags as per manufacturer's instructions

Keep CLTS contact information and premises data accurate

Reduce/remove tag snag hazards in areas that livestock frequent

Apply tags before animals leave the place of custody

CCIA'S | OBLIGATIONS

Collect regulated tag data as determined by the Health of Animals Act Part XV

Protect industry and government privacy

Ensure adequate supplies and access to approved tags

Ensure accuracy and timeliness of regulated data

Supply tags that meet minimum national technical standards

Accept trace data in different modalities, such as the CLTS MOBO APP

Get to know us better!

Learn more about the Canadian Livestock Tracking System (CLTS) database
CLICK HERE <http://support.canadaid.ca>

CCIA is the responsible administrator for beef cattle, bison, sheep and pending regulation, cervids and goats in Canada (with some exceptions in Quebec).

To learn more about how we are working towards traceability together, visit www.canadaid.ca
info@canadaid.ca | 1-877-909-2333

